

Learner and Teacher Agency

Year 10 Philosophy Semester 2: Philosophical Questions

Examine the following examples and non-examples to determine the common characteristics of Philosophical Questions. List these in the box below.

Philosophical questions	Not so philosophical questions
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. What is the relationship between knowledge and belief?2. Do humans have souls?3. Is abortion right or wrong?4. Do human beings have free will?5. Can we ever be certain of anything?6. What would Utopia be like?7. But, is it Art?	<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Are the Crows better footballers than Port Power?2. What colour ribbon should I wear?3. How far is it to Broken Hill?4. Should I eat a ham or egg sandwich?5. Which Prime Minister has left the most disappointing legacy?6. When was the Magna Carta signed?7. What is the meaning of the word, verbatim?

List characteristics of philosophical questions here: